Resources from the Expanded Core Curriculum related to Physical Education, Recreation & Leisure

Lauren J. Lieberman

The College at Brockport

Department of Kinesiology

350 New Campus Dr.

Brockport, NY 14420

llieberm@brockport.edu

(585) 395-5361

Articles

Descriptive Studies

Intervention Studies

Book Chapters

Products

American Printing House for the Blind (APH.org)- Jump rope for fitness kit Walk/run for fitness kit Portable Sound source (sport edition)
APH sound balls
Thirty Love Tennis guidelines for players with VI Push button padlock Nutrition Curriculum
Yoga mat with Braille and raised shapes for positioning with an instructional DVD-http://rousettus.com/products/?gclid=ClI0-dezpKECFddR2godSXZIvw

United States Association for Blind Athletes-(www.USABA.org) goal balls

www.Braillenegifts.com-bell soccer balls and basketballs www.Flaghouse.com-auditory balls and equipment www.costore.com/qwestpioneers/wELCOME.asp-beep baseballs

www.glowproducts.com-everything that glows including frisbees www.maxiaids.com-mini beeper www.Independentliving.com-beeping volleyballs, basketballs, and soccer balls with visual impairments or deafblindness play sports. Louisville, KY: American Printing House for the Blind.

Books

physical education. Champaign, IL: Human Kinetics

Assessment

Health Related Fitness test for children 10-17 with visual impairments

Web sites

www.campabilities.org-gives information about Camp Abilities as well as teaching strategies for children with visual impairments, blindness, or deafblindness www.twu.edu/INSPIRE-information about adapted physical education for all children www.aph.org-information about books, products, and curriculum’s for children with visual impairments, blindness or deafblindness www.tsbvi.edu/recc/pe.htm-This is a link from the Texas School for the Blind resources and published material related to physical education and sports for children with visual impairments www.usaba.org- The United States Association for Blind Athletes is our national governing body for sports for individuals who are visually impaired, blind or deafblind. It includes a link to game modifications for children with VI.

Camps

Camp Abilities: a developmental sports camp for children who are visually impaired, blind or deafblind-see www.campabilities.org

Sport Education Camps-Camps throughout the country that promote sports for children with visual impairments or blindness. Started by Paul Ponchillia at Western Michigan University paul.ponchillia@wmich.edu