

Job Coaching Essentials:

Supporting Students for Career Success

Fall 2026: August 17 - October 30, 2026

Winter 2027: January 11 - March 26, 2027

This online course provides evidence-based practices/strategies needed to support transition-aged students building work-related skills in community-based settings in relation to: executive functioning skills, task analysis and behavior management.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Module 1:

Strengthening Executive Function Skills to Improve Student Work Performance

Module 2:

Managing Behavior in the Workplace

Module 3:

Teaching Job Skills with Evidence-Based Practices

Module 4:

Final Assessment Application

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

You may register online by clicking on the name of the event on the Training Calendar at www.pattan.net/events/

For questions related to registration, contact:

PaTTAN West - Kristen Olszyk at kolszyk@pattanpgh.net

For questions related to content, contact:

PaTTAN West - Darla Bryant at dbryant@pattanpgh.net
PaTTAN West - Lisa Schmidt at lschmidt@pattanpgh.net

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

Registrants must complete all required portions of the course and deadlines to be eligible to receive continuing education credits.