

Chapter 2-3

Karana loves her island. She names it the island of the blue dolphins. It is shaped like a fish. The winds on the island are strong. Because of the strong winds, the hills are smooth and the trees are small and twisted. The village of Ghalas-at is east of the hills.

The Russian hunters, named Aleuts, set up their camp to the north of the hills. Karana hopes that the hunters will not harm her island.

Karana wants to keep her island safe.