

TIPS

Foundations of Inclusion TIES Inclusive Practice Series

The TIES Center is the national technical assistance center on inclusive policies and practices. Its purpose is to create sustainable changes in K-8 school and district educational systems so that students with significant cognitive disabilities can fully engage in the same activities as their general education peers while being instructed in a way that meets individual learning needs.

What are the Foundations of Inclusion TIPS?

The FI TIPS provide perspectives and strategies for supporting all students, including those with significant cognitive disabilities, to excel in general education classrooms.

Who are the Foundations of Inclusion TIPS for?

The FI TIPS are geared towards general and special educators, including specialized support personnel, as well as parents and primary caregivers.

The Foundations of Inclusion TIPS explained:

The FI TIPS include research evidence, myths and facts, strategies for implementation of high leverage practices in general education classrooms and how they can be modified for students with significant cognitive disabilities, analyses of potential barriers, and examples of classroom application.

Foundations of Inclusion TIPS Breakdown

Topics of TIPS in this series include:

- Incorporating High Leverage Practices into daily instruction in inclusive settings
- Applying special education High Leverage practices in inclusive general education settings
- Least Dangerous Assumptions in Educational Decisions
- Academic content standards and alternate achievement standards
- Adapting common instructional tools, strategies, and materials for use in inclusive classrooms
- Grading in inclusive classrooms
- Using Universal Design for Learning (UDL) principles to plan homework in inclusive classrooms

Foundations of Inclusion TIPS

The TIES Center is supported through a cooperative agreement between the University of Minnesota and the Research to Practice Division, Office of Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education (# H326Y170004). The Center is affiliated with the National Center on Educational Outcomes (NCEO) which is affiliated with the Institute on Community Integration (ICI) at the College of Education and Human Development, University of Minnesota. The contents of this report were developed under the Cooperative Agreement from the U.S. Department of Education, but do not necessarily represent the policy or opinions of the U.S. Department of Education or Offices within it. Readers should not assume endorsement by the federal government. Project Officer: Susan Weigert

