EVENT DESCRIPTION

Join fellow practicing special education directors and supervisors for facilitated conversations about timely and pressing topics impacting programming for students with disabilities. The synchronous (live), interactive and dynamic discussions will provide directors and supervisors the opportunity to dialogue about special education procedures and processes specific to the COVID-19 pandemic. Topics will be announced at the time of registration and will be prioritized based on participant feedback. Topics under consideration include: Delivery of COVID Compensatory Services; progress monitoring in the virtual setting; evaluations after school closure; trauma informed/mental health strategies; equity and diversity.

 When registering, you are acknowledging you are a current special education administrator (i.e., director, supervisor, or hold supervisory responsibilities for special education programs within your LEA).

TARGETED AUDIENCE

Current Pennsylvania special education directors and supervisors
