

Job Coaching Essentials: Supporting Students for Career Success

This online course provides evidence based practices/strategies needed to support transition-aged students building work-related skills in community-based settings in relation to: executive functioning skills, task analysis and behavior management.

Fall 2025: August 18 - October 31, 2025
Winter 2026: January 12 - March 27, 2026

Course Overview

- Module 1: Strengthening Executive Function Skills to Improve Student Work Performance
- Module 2: Managing Behavior in the Workplace
- Module 3: Teaching Job Skills with Evidence Based Practices
- Module 4: Final Assessment Application

Registration Information

To register for this training, go to:
<https://www.pattan.net/events/>

For questions related to registration, contact:
PaTTAN West - Kristen Olszyk at kolszyk@pattanpgh.net

For questions related to content, contact:
PaTTAN West - Darla Bryant at dbryant@pattanpgh.net
PaTTAN West - Lisa Schmidt at lschmidt@pattanpgh.net

Continuing Education Credit

Registrants must complete all required portions of the course and deadlines to be eligible to receive continuing education credits. This course is offered for 5 continuing education credits.