

INTRODUCTION TO Universal Design for Learning:

*The Why, the What,
and the How

September 15, 2026 -
December 10, 2026

January 26, 2027 - April 22, 2027

Online Course

This self-paced, online course provides participants with an introduction to Universal Design for Learning (UDL) by exploring the Why, the What, and the How of UDL. Through the course lessons and activities, participants will learn how to develop clear goals, recognize obstacles in the learning environment, and utilize the UDL guidelines to meet individual needs in pursuit of expert learning.

Participants will complete all course requirements via the online platform, Schoology.

Target Audience

General Education Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Intermediate Unit Training and Consultation Staff, and others interested in this topic.

Registration Information:

Please register online by visiting the PaTTAN website at www.pattan.net/events

For registration questions, contact:

PaTTAN East - Xiamara Monroe,
xmonroe@pattankop.net

For content-related questions, contact:

PaTTAN East - Lauren Lutz,
llutz@pattanpgh.net

Continuing Education Credit:

Act 48 Clock Hours

Participants must complete all modules along with the pre-assessment, post-assessment and final assessment within Schoology in order to receive [6] Act 48 Professional Education hours.

