Use print (cognitive/ linguistic item)	Explores accessible keyboards or letter boards to generate strings of random letters and characters	Selects letters with greater intentionality, such as generating strings of the same letter	Generates letters in word-like groupings with attention to spacing	Regularly generates text, may use word prediction some of the time	Generates letters to label or caption photos or drawings	Generates letters to "write" a letter, create a message, make a list	Selects letters, and words, with some connection to photo, list, message, or story	Generates many written words (some recognizable) to tell a story, create a message, make list
Demonstrate phonological awareness	Alert to and curious about sounds in the environment	Enjoys music, songs, rhymes or word play	Connects or names sounds in the environment	Follows rhythmic beat of language and music	Repeats rhythmic patterns in poems and songs	Participates in familiar sound and word play, songs, w/ visual cues & imitation	Aware that different words begin with the same sound	Identifies some initial letter sounds, makes some letter-sound matches
Demonstrate phonemic awareness	Enjoys listening to rhyming songs, wordplay and storybooks	Uses rhyme to predict words in familiar texts	Follows along clapping/ nodding the beats in a word, or words in a sentence	Recognizes words that are the same from words that are different: "cat, cat, sat: which word is different?"	Identifies words that rhyme and words that don't	Creates rhymes from a closed set or substitutes sounds to create rhymes	Creates alliterative or assonant pairs from a closed set (Silly Sally, Moses supposes)	Independently signifies the beats in a word

Words (How Words Work to Convey Meaning)
Generates descriptive language	Aware of others modelling the use of AAC to describe the attributes of a familiar person, thing, or activity using high frequency words: fast, big, silly, here, girl.	Observes and engaged by a model of using AAC to describe the attributes of a familiar person, thing, or activity	With support, responds to at least one attribute of a familiar person, thing, or activity.	Chooses, from a closed set, an attribute for a familiar noun or activity. E.g.: as partner lists potential words, student indicates “that’s it.”	With support, from a closed set, chooses at least one attribute for each of at least two items, to compare/contrast.	With support, sorts descriptions/attributes between at least two items/activities/concepts. E.g.: sorts word bank between two items	Scans AAC to generate multi-word descriptions of an item/thing/activity/concept. E.g.: generates list of clues to describe a person, thing, or activity.	Navigates AAC to generate multi-word comparisons of two items. E.g.: describes Aheh as “old, man, angry, revenge” and Moby Dick as “white big whale.”
Use symbolic language (AAC) to generate print	Observes symbol use modelled by communication partners	With scaffolding support, selects a symbol to make a choice	With scaffolding support, selects a symbol to make a comment to label or caption a photo	With scaffolding support, selects a symbol to describe a character or object	Uses AAC to logically complete an unfinished sentence or fill in a word.	Uses AAC to identify an audience and a purpose, such as to write message, make list	Uses AAC to logically respond to text, such as describing a character	Uses AAC system to generate a simple story, create a message, make a list

Text (How Words Combine in Connected Text to Convey Meaning)
Physically handle/ interact with books	Rips or mouths books and paper	Explores books with hands, stacks or bangs	Looks at book pages when shown	Browses book pages independently	Recognizes book by its cover	Holds the book appropriately, unprompted	Independently studies book pages	Turns pages appropriately, paper or digital
Interact with print	Indicates enjoyment when being read to	Touches the page when exploring books	Beginning to recognize print	Frequently recognizes print, such as pointing, touching, or looking at	Makes print to speech connection	Knows where to read on a page. Notices if reading partner skips text.	Completes any part of a sentence by generating a word with a symbol, photo, sign, or gesture	Understands “concept of word” (1:1 correspondence of text to speech)
Engage in the act of reading	Indicates awareness that someone is reading to him/her	Displays joint attention while being read to	Points to items on the page during shared reading	Labels or acts out story characteristics during shared reading	Points to people or objects related to the book during shared reading	Engages in parallel/solitary reading	Pretend reads to another , such as vocalizing while turning pages and touching words, or activating recorded speech	Pretend reads from memory, paying attention to the printed word
Writing (How I Can Generate Letters to Convey Meaning)
Write name	Attends to a model of writing the student’s name with an accessible keyboard, pencil, or letterboard	Sometimes makes an inconsistent mark/scribble when asked to write name	Frequently makes an inconsistent mark/scribble to write name	Makes a consistent mark/ scribble to write name	Makes a consistent letter-like form in scribble to write name	Writes a single recognizable letter or consistently selects correct first letter	Writes or selects some letters to form name (not necessarily in order)	Writes name in recognizable form, using an accessible pencil or letterboard

Communication (How I Can Generate Words to Convey Meaning)
Direct and take ownership of shared literacy experiences	Chooses literacy activities from an array of objects, photos, or symbols	Initiates any literacy activity: reading, scribble, alphabet play	Initiates a choice of story by selecting a book and sharing it to be read	Communicates a choice of story or song using a picture, sign, or vocalization	Directs the story or song to continue or cease using a symbol or sign	Communicates a choice of book topic or genre using a symbol of sign	Self-identifies as a reader	Comments on or shares opinions about the story using symbols
Interact with symbols during shared reading	Observes partner model the use of a symbol array	Recognizes 2-5 symbols regularly used by partner	Explores 2 or more symbols on array during reading	Uses multiple symbols to direct or comment on actions of partner	Uses AAC system to respond to partner	Uses AAC system to direct partner	Initiates using AAC to communicate about the book	Uses AAC to comment on the book or extend ideas in the book
Use oral language/ AAC during literacy activities	Vocalizes during literacy activities	Looks at, points to pictures, symbols, props	Labels pictures, actions with word approximations, signs, or symbols	Makes comments about the text using symbols or signs	Listens, and responds to, a story for a specific purpose: "listen so you can give the story a thumbs up or thumbs down"	Relates stories to personal experiences (text to self connection)	Asks questions about text and stories. Listen, and responds, for a specific purpose: listen so you can sequence/ compare/ describe..."	Retells a simple story with activity in sequence
