RENEW Booster Session for TOTs

April 17, 2018 Pittsburgh

April 19, 2018 Harrisburg

April 25, 2018 East

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

RENEW Trainers of Training (TOTs) are vital to the installation and sustainment of this structured school-to-career transition planning protocol for youth with emotional and behavioral challenges. Fidelity of implementation is required in order to promote student outcomes at the tertiary team level and individual student team level. This booster session will provide TOTs with a refresher of previously learned skills and procedures along with the data collection associated with RENEW. Additionally, TOTs will engage in discussions regarding systemic implementation of RENEW and strategies for supporting teams through the process.

Objectives:

- Identify the RENEW TOT Training Framework
- Define the importance of student data collection and how to complete the student tracker forms
- Define and clarify both TOT and Facilitator roles and responsibilities
- Define and clarify roles of Tertiary Teams and Student Teams
- Identify how the information collected in the RENEW Integrity Tool (RIT) is used for professional development

Audience: Current RENEW Trainers of Training (TOTs)
